

University of Jordan - Faculty of pharmacy
Department of pharmaceuticals & pharm. Technology
Cosmeticology
Dr. Bassam Amro

Objective

This course attempts to provide the students with the experience in the formulation, compounding, preservation and packaging of cosmetic products.

Course Outline

- Hair structure (2 hours)
- Hair dyes (2 hours)
- Hair shampoos and conditioners (2 hours)
- Hair lacquers, sprays and lotions (2 hours)
- Waving and relaxing preparations (2 hours)
- Skin structure (2 hours)
- Astringents and skin tonics (1 hour)
- Protective creams and hand cleansers (1 hour)
- Skin lighteners and bleaches (2 hours)
- Sunscreen, suntan and anti-sunburn preparations (3 hours)
- Depilatories (1 hour)
- Mid exam
- Skin products for young people (1 hour)
- Antiperspirants and deodorants (2 hours)
- Shaving preparations (1 hours)
- Foot preparations (1 hour)
- Insect repellents (1 hour)
- Manicure preparations (2 hours)
- Dental Products (1 hour)
- The use of plant in cosmetic products (2 hours)
- Preservation of cosmetic products (1 hour)
- Final exam

References

- Harry's Cosmeticology, Martin M. Rieger, 8th edition, 2000.
 - Poucher's Perfumes, Cosmetics and Soaps, Hilda Butler, 10th edition, 2000.
 - Cosmetics & Toiletries Magazine, - 2012.
-